

SUMMER Abroad

China Summer Service
Learning Program (SSLP)

CHINA

with isep

- Volunteer in rural China to support poverty alleviation
- Orientation at Tsinghua University in Beijing provides overview of poverty alleviation issues
- Projects commonly involve teaching English or computer training in rural schools
- Participants will be placed in rural provinces
- Participants will work/travel in groups of 5; 2 U.S. students, 2 Chinese students, Chinese faculty advisor
- All group members speak English

Volunteer in

Mainland China

Important Information:

- Dates: July 6, 2009 – July 25, 2009
- Program Fee: $650 (tuition, board, lodging) + $60 ISEP-Direct application fee
- Additional Student Costs: ISEP health insurance, airfare, passport and visa.
- Application Deadline: March 23, 2009
- Academic Credit: SSLP not offered for credit. Home institutions may determine if academic credit will be awarded. Students will receive a certificate of participation from Tsinghua University.

Your University is an ISEP Member

See your University's ISEP Coordinator for Details:

The Experience of a Lifetime

www.isep.org/summer