

SUMMER Abroad

UNIVERSITY OF HYDERABAD (UofH)

Study in India Program

LOCATION

Explore India in the dynamic culture capital of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad. From picturesque historical monuments to a burgeoning IT industry, Hyderabad is an ideal place to study both traditional and modern influences in India. Situated on 2,300 acres of rolling hills on the outskirts of the city, UofH is one of India's most attractive and best-equipped campuses.

PROGRAM DETAILS

During this 6-week summer term, the UofH Study in India Program (SIP) emphasizes heritage, continuity, and change in India. Study tours to nearby areas of historical and cultural interest are part of the program. Interdisciplinary in nature — with participating faculty from various schools, departments, and research centers within UofH — SIP offers excellent coursework options.

COURSES AND CREDITS

Students enroll in 2 – 3 classes (3 US credits each) in anthropology, communications, English, folk culture studies, languages, Indian philosophy, and women's studies.

HOUSING AND MEALS

Students live in the Tagore International House on campus and have a meal plan in the cafeteria.
