

STUDY

China

Abroad

China Summer Service
Learning Program (SSLP)

SSLP divided into (2) components:

Intensive Mandarin Language Study at Tsinghua University in Beijing (~ 1 month)

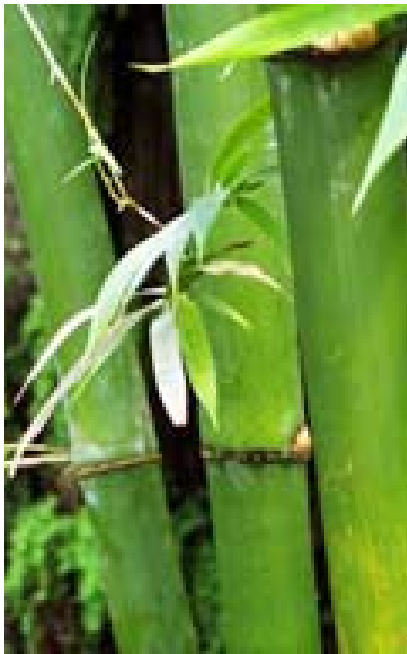

- Mandarin Speaking & Listening and a China culture class; 80 hours of class time
- All language levels will be accommodated; Beginners welcome
- Several organized excursions to Beijing sites
- Receive a certificate of completion from Tsinghua University

Developing and Implementing Service Learning Project in Rural China (~ 1 month)

- Volunteer in rural China to support poverty alleviation
- Week-long orientation at Tsinghua University provides overview of poverty alleviation issues
- Projects commonly involve teaching English or computer training in rural schools
- Participants will work/travel in groups of 5; 2 U.S. students, 2 Chinese students, Chinese faculty advisor
- All group members speak English

Spend a Summer
Studying &
Volunteering

Mainland China

Important Information:

- Dates: June 2, 2008 – July 26, 2008
- Program Fee: $1900 (tuition, board, lodging) + $60 ISEP-Direct app. fee
- Additional Student Costs: ISEP health insurance, airfare, passport and visa.
- Application Deadline: March 1, 2008
- Academic Credit: Home institutions will determine academic credit to be awarded based on the certificate of participation from Tsinghua University.

Your University is an ISEP Member

See your University's ISEP Coordinator for Details:

International Student Exchange Programs

www.isep.org